

MR FLANNIGAN'S TRUE SELF

MAE WILSON

First thing in the morning,
he puts on his glasses.

Then come

his dentures.

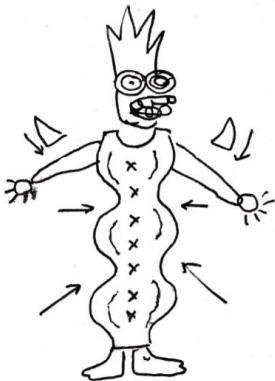

He puts on
his hair
extensions

his body

shapers

And his stilts.

As he has grown older, he has developed problems with his balance.

He has taken to wearing a prosthetic tail.

He looks in the mirror.

'It's a good day for my electric wings'
he thinks.

He puts them
on.

He dons
his radio
antennae,
and plays
the morning
news.

After that,

he does

his makeup

And paints

his nails.

An unexpected
mustache
lends him
an air of mystery.

over that goes his favorite

outfit

Complete

with a

jazzy

codpiece.

He tops
off the look with a giant robot suit.

And just like that,
Mr. Flannigan
is ready to face the world.
