

NIGHTTIME ACTIVITIES

- See a (scary?) movie at Salem's charming indie theater, Cinema Salem.
- Get a copy of The Horror Guide to Mass. (the e-book is an instant download) & use it to do a DIY biking tour of Salem's cemeteries (rent BlueBikes if needed).
- Dance with nonconformists at Bang, Salem's monthly goth night.

BONUS ROUND!

Also check out:

- ★ Artists' Row for cool art
- ★ Ye olde Pepper Companie, the oldest continuously running candy company in the U.S., for sweet souvenirs
- ★ Lifebridge Thrift Shop for the best thrifting
- ★ The Peabody Essex Museum for art & artifacts
- ★ Salem Common for community vibes

ZINE BY @KIND.STRANGERS

GOODNIGHT FATTIES

- Mercy Tavern has the best veggie burger in town.
- All Souls has great cocktails, & amazing grilled cheese, & so many veggie hot dog toppings!
- Deacon Giles has exceptional cocktails, time travel, & the occasional queer comedy show. BYO takeout.

DINNER & DRINKS

POCKET GUIDE TO

SALEM

massachusetts

has deliciously decadent cookies & vegan soft serve.

PUNTO URBAN ART MUSEUM

FOR A FANTASTIC STREET ART TOUR (& MY PERSONAL FAVORITE THING IN SALEM), GO TO:

BREAKFAST & LUNCH

Brew Box has possibly the best espresso drinks in town & breakfast burritos that are worth the wait (no seating though)

Ugly Mug is the best sit-down breakfast (Try Salem's Retreat if they're busy)

Lulu's Bakery has sandwiches & a truly impressive selection of sweets

ChezCasa has exceptional sandwiches & salads

Jolie Tea has the cutest afternoon tea

Melt has tasty & unique ice cream

DAYTIME ACTIVITIES

Head to Greenlawn Cemetery Arboretum for a walk around the pond & wildlife sightings!

Visit the Witch Trials Memorial & reflect on the relevance to today. Consider the oppression that happens by the "criminal justice" system, Christianity/Religion, sexism, intolerance, & othering.

Peruse the zines at Salem State's public zine library!