FOR PEOPLE WHO WANT TO TAKE ACTION
guante.info/ActionZine

If you're someone who pays attention to the world and cares about other people, it is only natural to feel overwhelmed, scared, or just adrift right now.

We might know that collective action offers the best path forward— but what does that mean? What does it look like?

This zine shares some ideas, but no advice, and no definitive answer. Because there is no perfect guide, no map, no big red button we can press to fix everything. Nobody has the one-and-only answer right now. And nobody knows what's going to happen next.

So we need to commit. To show up. To collaborate. To find our “political homes.” To experiment. To try.

These are all resources that I think have something useful to offer. Please feel free to share, make copies, and/or remix to make more relevant to your community or interests.

"Your power is relative, but it is real. And if you do not learn to use it, it will be used, against you, and me, and our children. Change did not begin with you, and it will not end with you, but what you do with your life is an absolutely vital piece of that chain."

- Audre Lorde
