AH!

lovesickness can't be captured in tests

so i was told it was all in my head, and how could i argue with that?

I was told my crying

was bad for business

I went on vacation
from myself
but when I got back
no one was home.
my own dust settled
over everything.
I leave the light on
for myself.

The artificial INFINITE

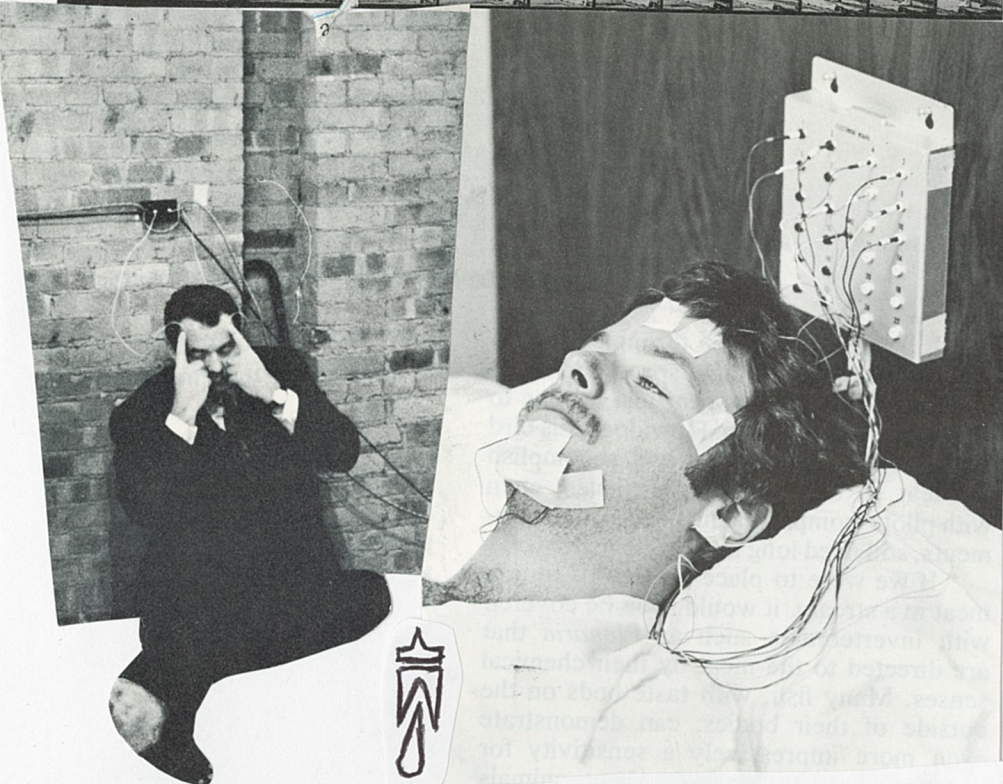

In my dreams i

in my dreams i i

issues of consumption

Try to remember every hand that has ever touched you Think of being touched by things that weren't hands

but made you feel like hands were on you

Then say I am not where I was

I'm in my skull

BRAIN MUSIC

Communion with the Self.

make yourself remain calm

I look at screens

Their glow penetrates my eye sockets

A thousand times a day

I am lobotomized with light

Neon disease
